

What do the best learners in our school do differently to other learners?

Effective learners:

- Can articulate what they are learning and why
- Can talk about how they are learning – the strategies they are using to learn
- Can be their own teacher

Effective learners:

- Can articulate their next learning steps
- Can use self-regulation strategies
- Are assessment capable (they understand the assessment tools being used and what their results mean and can self-assess)

Effective learners:

- Seek, are resilient to and aspire to challenges
- Can set mastery goals
- Asks questions
- See errors as opportunities and are comfortable saying that they don't know and/or need help

Effective learners:

- Positively supports their peers' learning
- Know what to do when they don't know what to do
- Actively seek feedback
- Have metacognitive skills and can talk about these (systematic planning, memory, abstract thinking, critical thinking, problem solving, etc.)

Does your child know how to be and have the opportunity to be EFFECTIVE LEARNERS?
